Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine - TCVM

Traditional Chinese veterinary medicine (TCVM) is the ancient veterinary treatment of animals based on the same theories as traditional Chinese medicine (TCM). TCM and TCVM have developed over a period of over 3,500 years and are practiced all over the world. In Western cultures such as the U.S., TCVM has rapidly grown as an adjunct therapeutic modality for animals that do not respond ...

TCM is a lifestyle philosophy guiding the maintainance of optimal health and treatment for imbalances. TCM is based on experimentation and knowledge that has been handed down through generations with the general end result being that chi flows through the body with optimal results. A TCM lifestyle includes exercise, diet and meditation and may utilize herbal medicine, acupuncture, tui-na (massage & chiropractics) and dietary therapy.
