Brimstone Virgil Cole Amp Everett

Virgil Cole is noble. His buddy Everett is more educated and yet Virgil is the heroic center, whom Everett interviews periodically to get Virgil's perspective on right and might. He is the Boswell to Virgil's Johnson. The first Virgil Cole and Everett Hitch title, Apaloosa, became a movie. Virgil loves a woman, Allie, with no moral center.

Given their reputations as guns for hire, Everett and Virgil are able to secure positions as the towns deputies. But Brother Percival stirs up trouble at the local saloons, and as the violence escalates into murder, the two struggle to keep the peace. As sharp and clear as the air over the high desert, Brimstone proves once again that Robert B. Parker is a force of nature (The Boston Globe).
