N. T. Wright is known to many as a New Testament scholar of prodigious learning and a productive pen. Many evangelicals have major concerns over Wright's doctrine of justification but have also taken note of his helpful attention to the new heavens and new earth. Whether one agrees with Wright subst

NT Wright Is Wrong: Hope in a Time of Pandemic — Reformanda

Few New Testament scholars have worked harder than N. T. Wright to impress upon God's people the nature of the hope that God gives to all who are in Christ. But those whom God condemns in his final judgment will not be given life and immortality, theirs will be the terrible experience of the "second death" (Rev 20:6, 14).
