Cambridge English: First Writing Part 1

When writing an informal letter, the first line is the date. It can be left- or right-justified on the page, but is generally at the top of a casual letter. The date is the only precursor needed before writing a casual letter. Step 2: Writing a letter, informally. Casual letters are easy; you can start with "Hello" or another customary ...

How to Write a Letter: Letter Writing Tips and Examples ...

First, we write out the questions asked along with answers that restate the question. Who wants to read a letter that says I like blue, pizza, and 9:00? Writing letters is NOT like texting or e-mailing. You don't get to go back and look at the questions you asked someone else. So I expect my students restate their answers.
