This information is intended for child care programs that remain open, and should be used in conjunction with CDC's guidance for administrators of child care programs and K-12 schools. This guidance does not supersede state and local laws and policies for child care programs.

Guidance for Child Care Programs that Remain Open | CDC

The first step to choosing a child care provider is determining whether potential providers have a license from your state or local government. Licensing does not guarantee quality; however, it sets minimum requirements and ensures that programs are monitored for compliance with these requirements.

Child Care - Informal and Formal. Informal child care is when a friend, relative, or nanny cares for a child in the family home or in his or her own home, receives no compensation of any kind for providing care, or provides care for less than 20 hours per month.. Formal child care includes child care centers and family child care homes. OCC has standards for these facilities to be licensed or ...
