Ratlines Stuart Neville

Ratlines by Stuart Neville is a weird book for me. On the basis of plot alone, I should've loved this book. A secret underground network known as the Ratlines smuggles Nazi perpetrators and collaborators out of Germany and onto the somewhat friendly territory of Northern Ireland.

Ratlines by Stuart Neville - Goodreads

"Wildly entertaining, Ratlines is a superb mystery but in addition, a spotlight on a slice of Irish history largely ignored. This is a complex mystery told in the exceptional style that Stuart Neville has made his own. Jameson and Nazis, Irish rebel songs and Charles Haughey, it's a bold and brilliant blend."
