John Paulson, a softly spoken hedge-fund manager who still took the bus to work, seemed unlikely to stake his career on one big gamble. But he did and The Greatest Trade Ever is the story of how he realised that the sub-prime housing bubble was going to burst, making $15 billion for his fund and more than $4 billion for himself in a single year.

“In short, The Greatest Trade Ever is a magnificent insider look at how Paulson and others profited off of subprime’s demise, detailing both the formulation and implementation of such a trade. It chronicles the hedge fund’s uprising and shows you how before this one idea, the ragtag bunch at Paulson & Co were far from deities.
